

Poppy Day

Our first task as School Council Representatives was to talk to the children about supporting the British Legion Poppy Day Appeal. We were selling poppies as well as wrist bands, snap bands, florescent poppies and rulers.

We were collecting for the appeal every playtime and by the end of the week had a very heavy money pot and virtually no stock to sell.

